Class Description:

These classes are specifically designed for very high quality personalized instruction in a fun group setting.

These classes are demanding on teachers and students and require serious dedication to practicing and attendance.

They include a lot of theory, and serious piano pieces. Test level of each student will be determined by their preparation in the class. The sooner they start preparing the higher the level of test they will be able to attempt.

It is a good idea for a student to have full keyboard with weighted keys at home for practicing, but it is not mandatory.

See more information about the test on our web site: http://www.napervillemusicacademy.com/aim\_examinations.pdf
